Dealer Comments
Meet the 2016 Ford F-150, a used truck built to make the everyday feel easier. Heated seats would be nice, but a sensible cab is where you notice the little things: a cabin air filter that keeps the interior fresher, a tire pressure monitor that removes a chore, and airbags plus a security system that you notice when you dont need them. Take it for a spin and see how it handles your routine. Stop by and take a closer look.
