Dealer Comments

This used 2022 Chevrolet Equinox is a sedan that drives like it was made for the daily rhythm: easy to park, calm on the highway, and comfortable on errands. The rear camera takes the guesswork out of tight spots and steering wheel controls keep you focused on the road. Tinted windows add a touch of privacy, cruise control settles in for longer runs, and the tire pressure monitor helps you avoid surprises. Take it for a spin and see how it fits.
